Czeslaw Dzienio

- Based on available information and/or investigation, Dzienio is considered to be affiliated with Polish Security Service.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

During a recent meeting with Dzienio, source was questioned as to whether or not he had initiated social contacts with Helen Czmouness, who is on the staff of "Nowy Dziennik", Polish Daily Newspaper, NYC, and Edward Kosowicz, an employee of Radio Free Europe, NYC. Source had been instructed to do so by Dzienio during a previous meeting. However, when source stated that he had not made either of these contacts, Dzienio became upset and angered and subsequently, reprimanded source.

Dzienio also inquired as to whether or not source was aware of any personnel changes at "Nowy Dziennik", Polish Daily Newspaper, NYC. Source advised Dzienio that he has not had an opportunity to have access to such information, but was unaware of any.

More specifically, Dzienio inquired as to whether or not source could furnish any additional information concerning Henryk Landowski, a writer for "Nowy Dziennik" and Konstanty Hanff, a controversial Polish figure in NYC.

In concluding, Dzienio asked source if he has had any "personal contacts" with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). In reply, source advised that he had not.
